

ALDERMEN HEAR WHY SPECULATORS ARE A NUISANCE

Marc Klaw Admits That "Half a Dozen Managers" Stand in With the Pests.

LOST $10,000 IN FIGHT.

President Brush Tells of the Troubles of the New York Baseball Club.

John T. Brush, president of the New York Baseball Club, and Marc Klaw, of Klaw & Erlanger, were two of the principal speakers before the Aldermen's Committee on Laws and Legislation this afternoon. The committee held a public hearing on The Evening World's ordinance, which, if adopted, will wipe out theatre ticket speculators.

Mr. Klaw in the course of his address was asked whether it was true that some theatre managers co-operated with the speculators.

"Yes, half a dozen are doing it," he promptly replied. "Pass this repealing ordinance and then we can put a stop to the business. Repeal is the only effective way."

"Let us control the hotel desks too, and put a stop to ticket grabbing and extortion."

Spent $10,000 in Fight.

Mr. Klaw said that his theatrical firm spent $10,000 one year trying to beat the speculators, and received a legacy of half a dozen law suits.

"I hope you will pass an effective ordinance that will put a stop to this speculator nuisance," he said. "These speculators are a menace to our employees and have tried to bribe them. I don't see how the city allows speculators, for $50 a year, to make common nuisances of themselves."

"We are a private concern such as all theatres have been adjudged to be, and why the city grants a privilege to enable these men to stand in front of our place is what I want to know."

President Brush was the first speaker. He said that the ticket speculator wrought an injustice to the baseball fans who would secure seats in the grandstand. Not only do the speculators grab the bulk of the tickets and sell at advanced rates on the sidewalk, but they would get inside the grounds and peddle tickets.

"We were forced to employ detectives and we threw out sixteen speculators," he said.

"We have closed our gates, but the speculators have continued to sell."

"Speculators have bought tickets, torn off the rain check and sold the rain check to one patron and the body of the ticket to another. We have been compelled, therefore, to withdraw all our reserved seats for advanced sale."

Two Aldermen on Record.

Alderman John F. Walsh, a member of the committee, said: "I am heartily with The Evening World in its crusade against these pests of sidewalk ticket speculators."

Alderman Brown, speaking in behalf of The Evening World's ordinance, suggested that the price of every ticket be printed on its face. He would make it an offense, punishable by a revocation of license, if a price in advance of that printed on the ticket is charged.

David M. Neuberger, retained by the speculators to plead their cause, said in addressing the committee that there was an aspect favoring his clients which he desired to present and asked for an adjournment. He said he was not familiar with the situation.

On Mr. Neuberger's plea, Chairman Richmond adjourned the hearing until Thursday, Oct. 8, when the speculators' side of the case will be presented.

SHERMAN SQ. HOTEL RECEIVER Supreme Court Judge Gerard this afternoon appointed Paul L. Kierman, of No. 14 Broadway, temporary receiver of the Sherman Square Hotel Company, Amsterdam avenue and Seventy-fifth street. The receiver was appointed on the petition of five of the six members of the Board of Directors, through McCabe, Davis & Korman, No. 30 Wall street.

Diamond-Studded Medal For Most Popular Giant

The Giants are playing the best baseball that New York has witnessed in years. They are out for the pennant, and from now until the close of the season the struggle promises to be the most exciting in the history of the league. ## FOREST FIRES REACH WEBB AND WHITNEY ESTATES

Woodruff's Camp Kill Kare Threatened by Adirondack Blaze—Town Wiped Out.

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Nothing but rain can prevent the spread of the forest fires which are eating their way through the Adirondack region. For the last two weeks there has been an almost providential calm, but to-day a high wind prevailed, threatening serious consequences unless a heavy rain comes soon. Public prayers for rain were offered in many churches throughout this region yesterday, and the Right Rev. Henry Gabriels, Bishop of Ogdensburg, has sent out a letter asking priests to offer up daily prayers for rain.

Following the destruction of Long Lake West yesterday, reports to-day indicate that many of the extensive private preserves in that vicinity are being fire swept. Nahamess Park, Dr. Webb's estate, is burning, while fires are reported to the estate of A. A. Low, a brother of former Mayor Seth Low, of New York. Five hundred acres belonging to Patrick Moynihan, near the ruins of Long Lake West, are said to have reached Bear Pond, on which Thomas Christie's fine lodge is located, and there are fires in Harry Payne Whitney's 80,000 acre estate.

Another fire is reported sweeping east from Cranberry Lake in the direction of Long Lake West. A fire train is in waiting at Horse Shoe to convey the inhabitants to a place of safety should the fires there get beyond control. Rain began falling at Clearwater and Long Lake West at 11 o'clock this morning and it is reported that indications are for a sufficient downpour to stop the fire ravages. Reports from other points along the Mohawk and Malone are to the effect that dangerous conditions have disappeared at most places. About 4,000 men have been fighting the fires.

WOMAN ARRESTED AFTER INCENDIARY TENEMENT FIRE

The police of the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street police station late yesterday afternoon arrested a woman who, they say, set fire to the tenement at No. 52 East Ninety-fourth street early to-day and caused a bad panic among the twenty families living there.

The prisoner is Mrs. Elizabeth Hickey. She was arrested by detectives in her home, at No. 25 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street. According to the police she was a former tenant of the place she is accused of firing.

The blaze in the tenement was fortunately discovered before it had gained much headway. It was kindled in a coal bin of oil-soaked rags and papers. Much loss of property and possibly of life would have occurred had it not been discovered before it was too late to check its headway.

CHARGED WITH SWINDLING.

Three Men Alleged to Have Obtained Merchandise on Bad Notes. Three men who gave the names of Frederick C. Herrick, Louis Bamberger and Theodore Brix, were arrested by Magistrate Waite in the Tombs Court to-day, charged with obtaining thousands of dollars worth of merchandise on bogus notes.

The prisoners had been arrested by Lieutenant Detective McConville and Jackson at the instance of Assistant District Attorney Kinslerberger, who has recovered voluminous evidence against them. The specific complaint on which they were arrested named William C. Trevelyan, of No. 9 Park place, as complainant and charged that he had been swindled out of $20 worth of goods by the defendants. All three were held for further examination.

"HONEST JOHN" KELLY DENIES HE IS A BANKRUPT

Sporting Man Refuses to Answer Questions About Acquaintance With 'Lou' Betts.

John Kelly, the sporting man known as "Honest John," spent an unpleasant hour to-day before United States Commissioner Gilchrist while under examination in bankruptcy proceedings.

Receiver F. L. Edick, in charge of the Rye Beach Inn at Rye, N. Y., being anxious to locate assets, decided to question John Kelly and Oscar Snyder, who conducted the place under a partnership agreement. It was alleged by creditors in the involuntary petition that Kelly had secreted cash to the amount of $230.

Through his counsel, Edward J. Maroney, the sporting man, denied that he is bankrupt and declared that the object of the hearing was to degrade, disgrace and incriminate him. Lawyer G. J. Goldsmith, for Receiver Edick, questioned Kelly.

Q. What is your business? A. Speculator.

Q. What do you speculate in? A. Hotel business and billiard rooms.

Q. What was your last speculation? A. I had a good bet on Fair Play, but lost.

Q. What was the last business you were in? A. I am interested at the present time in a billiard room at the northeast corner of Broadway and Forty-second street.

Q. Under what name is it conducted? A. That of John T. Doyle.

Q. Are you interested in any other business? A. That is all I can remember. I am not insolvent and am prepared to pay the $3,000 alleged to be owing creditors of the Rye Beach Inn.

Q. Do you owe Lou Betts any money? A. No.

Q. Are you under any obligation to pay any money? A. The debts of the Rye Beach Inn, I suppose, I am also under an obligation to $25 a week alimony.

Q. To your wife? A. I didn't say to whom. It has got to be proven that she is my wife. Let us fix up things. You know I'm solvent, and if you don't believe me, I will give a bond as security to pay the $3,000 if the property at the Inn does not cover all the claims. I'm no criminal, and want to square things.

Q. How many enterprises have you been engaged in during the past six months? A. Three.

Q. What is the nature of the third enterprise? A. I decline to answer on the ground that my reply might tend to degrade and incriminate me.

About Lou Betts.

Q. Are you acquainted with Lou Betts in any way? A. I refuse to answer on any way.

Q. Have you a bank account? A. Yes, $4,000 or $5,000 on deposit with the Commercial Trust Company and a small amount of deposit in the Franklin Savings Bank.

Q. Do you own any real estate? A. I refuse to answer that question on the statutory grounds that my reply might tend to degrade and incriminate me.

The hearing will be continued at 11:30 o'clock A. M. on Wednesday, when Kelly produces his bank books.

WHITE PLAGUE WORSE THAN WAR, SAYS CORTELOU

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—A remarkable educational campaign formally was inaugurated here to-day. It was humanity's crusade against a most deadly foe—the white plague. The occasion was the official opening of the sixth triennial international congress on tuberculosis at the National Museum.

Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou presided, and as the personal representative of President Roosevelt extended the official welcome on behalf of the United States Government.

Secretary Cortelyou in his address told of the rapid advance in the United States in the warfare on tuberculosis since Dr. Lawrence F. Flick started it in 1892. Referring to the movement at large, the international congress on tuberculosis held in Berlin in May, 1899, was the first one held with general international sanction, and was therefore of especial value because of its stimulating influence and the fact that it publicly represented the indorsement of governments of the world.

"Statistics show," said Secretary Cortelyou, "that tuberculosis in the past four years caused more than three times as many deaths in this country as occurred in action and from wounds during the action during the entire period of the Civil War."

In his letter to Dr. Flick, accepting the presidency of this congress, President Roosevelt said: "The international congress on tuberculosis is in the interest of universal peace. By joining in such a warfare against a common foe the peoples of the world are brought closer together and made to better realize the brotherhood of man; for a united interest against a common foe fosters universal friendship."

THIRTY ROBBERS IN HOLD-UP KILL AND GET $100,000

Guards of Russian Train Shot Down and Passengers Terrorized With Fusilade.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 28.—A band of thirty robbers held up a train near Vilna, and after shooting the guards terrorized the passengers by a fusilade of bullets an despoiled with plunder estimated at between $50,000 and $100,000. A large force of police and troops were hurried to the scene, but have not been successful in capturing any of the robbers or in recovering the stolen money. In addition to the money stolen there was on board the train valuable registered correspondence and the day's receipts from all the railroad stations between the frontier and Vilna. These were being forwarded to the headquarters of the railroad at St. Petersburg.

Removal Sale Carpets & Rugs

Our lease expires in a short while, and we must sell a quarter of a million dollars' worth of stock before removal. We sell without reservation. Prices below manufacturing cost. In the same period we shall sell the entire surplus stock of the Dobson Mills at amazingly low figures. Fifteen years ago, when we came to this store, we had a removal sale. Many of our old patrons talk yet of the carpet and rug values then purchased. Some have them still on their floors. This is an even greater opportunity for real, money-saving bargains in floor coverings.
